"The Great Plains" was selected by the American Library Association as one of the ten outstanding books in American History.

Twenty Years a Professor

For the last twenty years, Dr. Webb has been professor of Education and History at the University of Texas. He has been honored with the Lobos Prize for outstanding work in social science; and, with Barker and Dodd wrote (Continued on last page)

Federation Has Large Attendance Two-Day Meeting

Many Visit Park While Guests Here; 500 Women of District Attend Conference

Five hundred club women from the Seventh District Texas Federation of Women's Clubs were present for the closing sessions of the Sixteenth Annual convention here Friday, selecting Childress as the site for the 1938 convention. No new officers were named, since the District elects only on alternate years.

Mrs. J. W. Walker of Plainview District President, opened the first general session Thursday morning in the W. T. Auditorium. Highlighting the day's program was an address by Bishop Robert E. Lucey of Amarillo on "Building a New Social Order." The Bishop discussed the changes in modern notions of social justice, emphasizing that a righteous social order must have its foundation in the ten commandments.

S. H. Condron, of the W. T. faculty, continued the discussion in one of the leading addresses of the Friday program on "The Supreme Court Problem."

Club women were entertained Thursday evening with a program presented by the Madrigal Club, following which the District President, Mrs. Walker, addressed the assembly on "The Marks of a Good Club Woman," declaring that the club woman is characterized by her ability to put first things first, her magnanimity, and her ability to discipline herself.

Joe Vern Hales State Champion In 4-H Class

Holstein Record Made By Randall County Boy Wins In All Shows of the State

The Holstein-Friesian Association of America has selected Joe Vern Hales of Randall County as the 1936 Texas State Champion 4-H Holstein Club Boy.

Joe is fourteen years old and has completed four years of work in the Dairy Project. He started his club career in 1933 with one Holstein calf and at the close of the 1936 season he had increased the number of animals in his project to four. Each year Joe has exhibited his club animals at the various state and district shows in both the open and 4-H classes, whenever possible. During the four years of club work his Holstein animals have won 21 firsts, 10 seconds, and 1 third—a total of $297.00 in prize money. At the Texas Centennial one of Joe's animals was selected as the Champion 4-H Holstein Heifer. In addition to making exhibits at the fairs, Joe has taken part in several contests conducted for Dairy Club members. During the last year Joe included the Feed Project in his club work and he is planning to continue his club work in 1937.

By winning State honors, Joe now becomes a candidate for National Champion, as the Holstein-Friesian Association will choose a National Champion 4-H Boy from the list of State Champions for 1936.

More than 40 dentists from this section attended the testimonial dinner.

Insects Are Doing Considerable Dam- age to Wheat Crop

An insect similar to the red spider is working in the wheat fields of the Plains, and have done considerable damage. More wheat has been damaged in the southeast section of Randall county than elsewhere in this section. County Agent W. H. Upchurch has sent specimen of the insects to A. & M. College for classification and information regarding the pest.

However, this pest is nothing new to the Plains. It is worse this year than usual. Loose, dry ground favors propagation of the insect. A heavy rain would put an end to the pest, but until rain comes it will continue to do damage in the wheat fields.

WPA Started Water Survey of Randall County on Tuesday

A water survey is being made of Randall county under the direction of WPA. Twenty men are assigned to this job, which will require about three months.

Holes are being sunk with a hand auger to measure the depth to water. All holes sunk will be located on a map, which will be made available for public use.

The first holes will be drilled on the J. I. Ballingee land.

A. T. Smith made a business trip to Wellington last week.

Maier Points to Greater Work at Palo Duro Park

Noted Geologist From Washington on Visit Also; Water Supply to Be Traced

Herbert Maier of Oklahoma City, district director of the National Park Service, was here Wednesday making an inspection of the Palo Duro State Park.

Mr. Maier has approved extensive plans for the development of the Park. He has always pronounced the Palo Duro to be the greatest regional park in the Southwest.

George Rothrock of Washington, chief geologist for the National Park Service, was here Thursday and was astonished at the wonderful possibilities found in the Palo Duro. Mr. Rothrock was accompanied by J. B. Gould, region geologist, who has made extensive surveys in the Palo Duro.

Geologist Gould was directed to make an extensive survey of the water supply at crossing No. 1 where an underground stream of water was found when excavation was being made for the concrete foundation. The water at this point is pure and can probably be utilized for the entire park water supply. Mr. Maier is highly pleased in finding this water stream, and indicates that if it is sufficient, use will be made of it to develop new features, with likelihood of a large swimming pool in the near future.

Supt. Wm. Anderson accompanied the visitors on the inspection trips through the Park and was highly pleased with the reports he has received as the possibilities of the Palo Duro and the plans which are being made for the future development of the project.

The park was opened free of charge to all visitors last Sunday. More than 1525 cars entered the park during the day, carrying more (Continued on last page)

Mothers and Dads Invited

Citizens of Canyon Are Urged To Take Part In Program at W. T. Wednesday

Citizens of Canyon Should attend the San Jacinto celebration at W. T. next Wednesday, April 21st. Fathers and mothers of students have been invited as special guests for this occasion, and they will expect to see many Canyon citizens in the gathering.

Several out-of-town speakers will appear on the program. It would make a poor showing for this community if these speakers appeared before an audience composed largely of students and members of the faculty.

The Fort Worth Star-Telegram, one of the leading newspapers of the state, will have a special representative here to cover this event, and will take pictures of the gathering.

The success of the occasion will depend to a great deal upon the interest taken by the people of Canyon. Show the visitors the great interest that Canyon has in W. T. by attending both the program in the morning and the one in the afternoon.

The time has been very short in which to advertise this event to the people of this section. Canyon citizens may aid very greatly in getting out a big crowd by telling their friends, and then attending the programs.

Reserved seats will be provided for parents of all students at the morning program, stated Dr. J. A. Hill, yesterday.

C. E. Cheyne Funeral Services Are Held Friday Afternoon

Charles Eldred Cheyne, 69, pioneer plains farmer, died Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock at his home here following a short illness. Funeral services were held at the First Methodist Church Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the pastor, the Rev. J. O. Quattlebaum, and the Rev. J. R. Hicks, pastor of the Baptist Church, officiating.

Pall bearers were Glenford Fowler, A. K. Goodman, I. N. Steen, Milton Kiker, Sam Bond, and Reeves Donnell.

Mr. Cheyne was laid to rest in Dreamland cemetery beside his wife who died here in March, 1934.

Mr. Cheyne retired from farming and moved to Canyon in 1927 from Crosby county. He was born in Little River County, Ark., in 1868, and moved with his family to Wise County, Texas when a year old. For many years he was employed by the Big X Ranch in Tom Green County and at White Oaks, N. M. He settled near Crosbyton with his family in 1912.

He is survived by seven daughters: Mrs. M. W. Gordy, Canyon; Mrs. Lewis Fields, Stephenville; Mrs. Henry Cone, Canyon; Mrs. Luther Kiker, Floydada; Mrs. Flaudie Gallman, Muleshoe, Mrs. Coit Cornelius, Amarillo, and Miss Bobby Jo of Canyon; four sons, James E. and Otis of Canyon, W. D. of Amarillo and Ray of Muleshoe. 14 grand children also survive the deceased.

$137,800 Goes To Farmers of County

Half Conservation Money Is Being Distributed Today at Office of the County Agent

$137,800 will be distributed among land owners this afternoon under the soil conservation program. About half of the checks due for Randall county were received yesterday by County Agent W. H. Upchurch, and notices were mailed to those land owners whose checks arrived.

It is likely that the balance of the checks may be received during the coming week, but no assurance is given as to the time they will be received owing to the large amount of work in the state disbursing office at Dallas.

The checks have been delayed much longer than was anticipated since nearly all of the counties of the state got their vouchers into the Dallas office about the same time, hence the delay.

Baggett is Named Director National Basketball Tourney

Coach Al Baggett has been named a director in the new National Interscholastic Tournament which will be held in Kansas City on March 7-12, 1938. This date is one week in advance of the A. A. U. to be held at Denver.

The Buffaloes will enter both tournaments next year. In addition it is almost certain that the team will receive an invitation to play in Madison Square Garden, New York, early in the year.

The Buff team is receiving national advertising as the tallest team in the world, and next season promises to be the most colorful in the history of basketball in W. T.

Mrs. S. B. Whittenburg of Amarillo and Mrs. Bernis Carmichael of Lamesa were callers in Canyon Saturday.

Nationally Famous Midland A Capella Choir

The widely known Midland a cappella choir pictured above will give two concerts here Thursday, April 22. A program will be presented at the college at 11 o'clock in the morning and another program will be given at the Baptist Church in the evening.

Rocks Thrown at Church and Houses Do Great Damage

Boys throwing rocks have done great damage to property on east Sixth Avenue, and officers are on the lookout for the boys doing this damage.

Practically all of the windows of the Catholic church have been broken out, and great damage done to the interior of the building. No services have been held in the church for several years, but the building was in a fair state of repair until boys started throwing rocks at it.

Citizens in that neighborhood have registered complaint that rocks have been thrown against homes, and in some instances windows and doors have been damaged by those engaged in this practice.

Arrests are expected in a few days of those who are engaging in the practice.

Entered at the postoffice at Canyon, Texas, as second class matter. Published weekly at office, 1513 Fourth Avenue, Canyon, Texas.

The News is certainly a most staunch supporter of President Roosevelt, but does not hesitate to criticize the things which we deem wrong. We are puzzled at the action of the President in his seeming attempt to break private power companies by encouraging the installation of municipal and federal plants. We have voiced this opinion many times. Just now this nation is infested with sit-down strikes. We are firmly convinced that President Roosevelt has all the powers at his command to put a stop to such an un-American movement. No doubt the President feels a hesitancy to taking a firm stand against organized labor. In the first place, Roosevelt is very kindly in his attitude toward labor and the great masses of the nation. His every act has been to help those who need help. In the second place, organized labor put forth such strenuous efforts to re-elect the President that he would certainly show himself most ungrateful if he did not listen to its leaders. But the sit-down strike cannot be justified under any circumstance. Perhaps the President feels there is less likelihood of violence with this method than there would be under the old methods. It is likely that he feels that eventually he may be able to smooth out the difficulties between the industrial and labor leaders, ironing out the problems without strife. No one from the outside can possibly realize the difficulties that the President is confronted with in this great complex government of ours.

Chief Justice Hughes was 75 years of age Sunday. The life and example of the Chief Justice is no doubt the hardest hurdle that President Roosevelt has in his campaign for court reform. Judge Hughes himself stated that 75 years was the logical age for retirement of judges, but no one expects him to retire. He is an unusual man, dignified, well qualified, and as modern as any man could be in his thinking, considering the fact that he was reared in the atmosphere of extreme wealth and always represented in private law practice the big trusts of the nation. The record of Judge Hughes has made is a most honorable one, and one of which every American may feel extremely proud. But the great success of his life does not mean that all men who reach 75 years of age shall continue to be as useful as the Chief Justice, the opponents of the President notwithstanding.

A lot of predictions are being made as to the wheat yield of the Panhandle. When a hard wind hits, the yield prediction goes down. Fortunately there have been only two highly destructive winds this spring, and a little more moisture has fallen on the present crop than usual for the time of year. However the conservative is prone to remember that the sub-moisture is far below normal, and heavy rains are needed to replenish the underground supply. The real test of a wheat crop is the amount of grain that finally reaches the elevator, and harvest time is a considerable distance off. Indications are more favorable for a wheat crop than this country has had for several years, and most certainly the people of the Panhandle deserve a break by producing a real wheat crop in 1937.

"Corporations Get a Real Ride," is the heading of an editorial in the Floydada Hesperian. Yes, indeed, the corporations are looked upon as gigantic monsters and easy prey for the lawmakers. "Scores of small concerns likely exist in Floydada today, could readily be out $650 to $800 in taxes this year without making a dime," is a very true and well put statement of the Hesperian. The new taxes on corporations will force hundreds of small corporations of Texas to dissolve. There still remains the incentive to kill the goose which lays the golden egg. "The people must think corporations are a menace to the welfare of the land for they are taking rapid steps to be rid of them," concludes the Hesperian.

The Supreme Court has evolved into a one-man affair. Justice Roberts is the key man, who flops from one side to the other, thus creating a situation which would be comical if it was not so serious. Close observers can guess as to how the other eight justices will vote, since their economic background will reveal their position upon all subjects before the court. In nine paramount decisions, Justice Roberts has been the balance wheel, voting 5 times with the conservatives, and 4 times with the liberals. The others hold their lines. After all the Supreme Court is no longer a deliberative body when keen reporters can line up the court in advance and place the decisions absolutely of at least eight of the members.

One thousand farmers who sold their milk supply to the Hershey plant had a pretty good idea about how to handle sit-down strikers. Armed with clubs, pitchforks and other implements the strikers were driven from the plant, and in a few hours the factory was running again. The farmers had nothing to do with the strike and were not a party to it, excepting to lose thousands of dollars daily in the sale of milk. This is the tragedy of every strike—the innocent suffer a tremendous loss in a situation over which they have no control. The strikers may win and in the long run be repaid for the loss of wages involved, but those who stand a loss as a result of the strike have no recovery.

Stanley Baldwin announces that he will retire as prime minister of Great Britain. Wise old politician.

Voted Against War 20 Years Ago

Only remaining members of Congress of the 56 who voted against America's entrance into the World War 20 years ago are the three above. Left to right, as they were re-united in Washington, are Rep. representative Harold Knutson, Minnesota; Senator George Norris, Nebraska; and Senator Ernest Lundeen, Minnesota.

Center of dramatic interest 20 years ago in the Congress of the United States was Jeanette Rankin of Montana, leading woman representative. Miss Rankin, shown at the left, voted against entry into the World War, but only after a tense scene in which she said, "I love my country, but I cannot vote for war."

He is riding the crest of popularity and decided that the time to quit was while the hats of the populace were in the air in his acclaim. One of these days the hats would hit the dust, and the prime minister would feel the toe of the boot. Baldwin won a great victory for his government, and gained the popular applause when he forced the recent King Edward to abdicate. Before the people find out just how weak the new monarch really is, or before Windsor returns to England to receive the praise of the commons is a good time to get out.

Just twenty years ago America entered the world war. Those who were in congress at that time and voted for war still believe they did the right thing, as was demonstrated by the statements made last week. The nation was worked up to a fighting spirit by the propaganda which was fed to the people by those interested in showing this nation into war. No matter who might have been in the White House or in congress, the result would have been the same—war! The thing for this nation to do is to safeguard against a re-occurrence by laws which will take the profit out of future wars.

The first test in Texas as to the popularity of President Roosevelt's court reform measures was staged in the 10th district last Saturday. Young Lyndon B. Johnson, former NYA chief, was elected over 7 opponents. His platform was approval of the President's administration and pledge to follow the chief executive. The court reform bill was one of the points of chief discussion during the campaign, with Johnson pledging himself to support the measure. The people spoke their approval, which may cause some of the other congressmen to stop, look, and listen.

Sentiment is rapidly changing in favor of President Roosevelt's court reform. The score now stands 49% in favor, 51% opposed, according to the latest national poll. The opposition had a decided advantage in this matter, since the lawyers jumped immediately into the fight of opposition, and many of the leading newspapers were induced to follow the lead of the lawyers. Those following the President were unorganized, and had not thought the matter through until the lawyers started spouting off.

Sixty-five constitutional amendments are pending in the legislature. It would cost several million dollars to submit all of these to the people for a vote. Of course it is not contemplated that all of the amendments will be submitted, but likely ten or a dozen will finally reach the official ballots. If there are so many provisions in the old state constitution which need patching up, why not do the thing right by calling a constitutional convention?

We note bitter political battles which have been fought in various city and school elections over the state. When local people are at the throats of their neighbors over city and school elections, nothing good comes from such battles. The people of Canyon are certainly to be congratulated in having been able to avoid such political feuds throughout the past years.

Say, you newspaper publishers of the Panhandle! Make your plans to attend the 28th Annual Convention of the Panhandle Press Association in Amarillo on next Friday and Saturday, April 23-24. The programs are out, and provide for plenty of entertainment and plenty of information for those who attend.

The week of April 30th has been designated as Will Rogers Memorial Week. An effort will be made to complete raising funds for an adequate hospital to be erected in honor of Will Rogers. The motion picture industry is taking the lead in this movement.

of the counties in this section report a decline. Are the people following the advice of the lawyers and intend going back to the good old horse and buggy days?

What has become of the Spanish war? It seems that most of the nations have withdrawn their support, and the fighting has become less spirited. The insurgents are doomed to be whipped without the support of Mussolini.

The world war cost this nation 60 billions of dollars—all gone in waste forever. War costs have doubled annually since the war. It is evident that this nation did not win the war.

The four hardest words to say in the English language: "Yes, I am wrong."

Well-Known Piano Teacher Visits In Clark Home Here

Dr. E. W. Grabill, nationally-recognized teacher of piano, and his wife, Mrs. Grabill, were weekend guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace R. Clark. Mr. and Mrs. Grabill arrived in Canyon late Friday afternoon and remained over the week-end, leaving early yesterday morning continuing their automobile trip to Connecticut.

Dr. Grabill now maintains private piano studios in the city of Los Angeles, in which Mrs. Grabill is also teaching. He is nationally known and recognized for the modern type of piano technique which he has developed and which is looked upon as being probably the best in America and other countries of the world.

From the studios of Mr. Grabill have come some of the country's foremost musicians, some of whom are locally well known and quite familiar to students of the college here, such as Wallace R. Clark, head of the department of music. Miss Pauline Brigham, teacher of piano in the department, Miss Frances Usery, also teacher of piano in the department, absent on leave this year, and Mrs. Herschel Coffee, well-known local pianist.

Since he taught music in the college here during a summer session a few years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Grabill are well known to citizens of Canyon and to members of the college faculty.

W. T. COACHING SCHOOL PLANS

Famed Mentors To Assist Sutherland In Course

Coach Al Baggett has announced one of the most competent athletic staffs in the nation to instruct in West Texas State's second annual Coaching School to be held in Canyon, June 6-12.

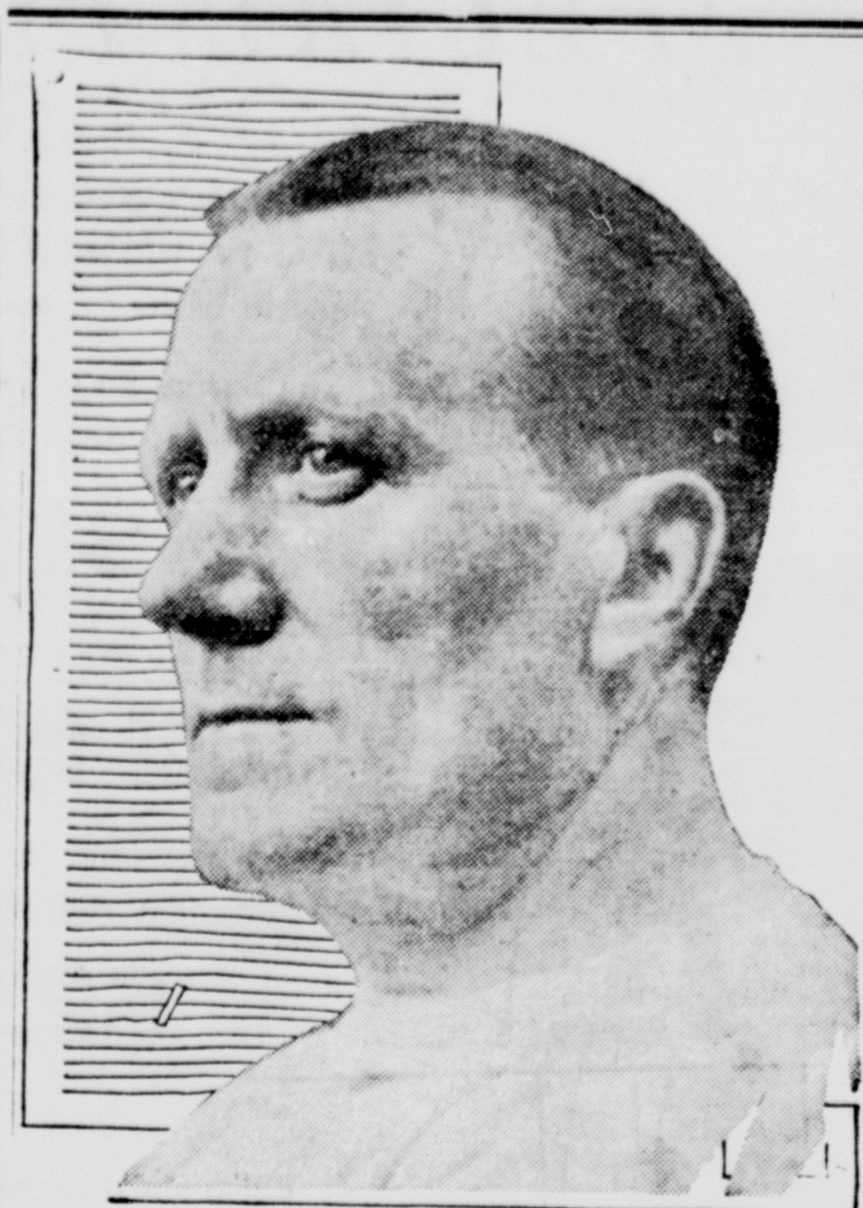

The "idol of every football coach" and one of the greatest names in football, Dr. John Bain (Jock) Sutherland of the University of Pittsburgh will serve as the principal instructor. As football coach at the University of Pittsburgh since 1934, Sutherland has dropped only 13 games in the past 13 years. His clubs have always been strong contenders for the Rose Bowl bid. Last year the Panthers swept voraciously across the nation to annex the national championship by a lop-sided win over Stanford.

In accepting the coaching school position, Sutherland replied by telegram saying, "Your faculty shapes up as one of the best in the country and I shall be proud to work down there."

Assisting Sutherland will be Matty Bell of Southern Methodist University, Frank Leahy, Line Coach at Fordham University, and Blair Cherry, Assistant Coach of the University of Texas, and former coach of the three state champions, the Amarillo Golden Sandstorm.

In the basketball division, the load will be tossed on the capable shoulders of Jimmy St. Clair of Southern Methodist University and "Chuck" Taylor, the "Ambassador of Basketball" and trick shot and pass artist. Clair's proteges emerged as champions of the Southwest Conference last year.

The organization and Administration of Physical Education will be headed by Dr. Harry A. Scott, Director of Physical Education at Rice Institute and Professor in the school of Physical Education each summer at Columbia University. Three hours credit in Physical Education 331 or 332 will be given those regularly enrolled in the school.

Mr. Isaacs made the run on horseback into Oklahoma when the state was opened to settlers. He staked out a town lot in Cheyenne. Later he traded the lot for half a section near Canadian which was the nucleus of the ranch holdings of Sam and Will Isaacs. A pioneer celebration is being held in Cheyenne this week, and all who made the run are being entertained as special guests.

Here Comes Charlie!

Oh-h-h Boy! (I saw Hideaway Girl.)

Some of the queerest things have been happening up at this here school. Tother day I came to town to get the staple groceries for the next three months and went up to the school house and thought for a few moments that I was in the wrong place. I seen Pat Childress a-coming down the hall with that black eye and the side of his face all swollen; boy, he really looked bad. I asked him what the other fellow looked like and old Pat said he wasn't much bigger than Dayton Morris. What a man!

Say, Dwayne, what happened to you? I seen you on your crutches tother day but didn't have time to stop and ask you how you did it. I heard it was broken. The next time I'm at that there school and you see me, why you tell me how you did it, cause my curiosity is shore roused.

I wuz a-talking to Buff Morris tother day. (He is a fine old man, ain't he? Oh, well, skip the bouquets.) And he said that love wuz really showing up this spring. Last week sometime Mr. Morris walked in the bookkeeping room and there sat C. L. (I guess you kids know him as "Bulldog"), without his practice set. When Mr. Morris asked him where it wuz, he says it wuz coming; but how, Mr. Morris didn't know. Then shore enough, when he passed by Mary Catherine Wirt's desk, there wuz her practice set. Mr. Morris just knew that she wuz loitering, or whatever Mr. Pope calls it when you fool around the school building. Well, he went to look for her and then right after he came back, in came Mary Catherine with Bulldog's practice set. How that happened I couldn't tell you, but I jest thought that maybe they could work better if they thought they were working on something for the other one. Oh, but ain't it grand!

That shore is a pretty picture that them Juniors have got; I wouldn't mind getting it and keeping it for next Christmas to give it to Miriah for her present. Why don't you kids buy a chance? You could give the picture to your mother.

I hear that the faculty is gonna put on another play instead of "The Drunkard." I wonder why? Maybe Mr. Brown refused to be the sot of the play. Well, tough luck, Mr. Brown, that you couldn't have the lead with that Miss Greenfield, but here's hoping you luck as "Mama's Baby Boy" and luck to you with Miss Eastus.

A life-long pal,
Cactus Cal.

SUPPORT YOUR CANDIDATE
Her Majesty, the Queen! Classes, wouldn't it be an honor for her to be your candidate? Don't you want your candidate to be the Queen of Canyon High School?

We seem to have lost sight of the fact that this is a contest among the classes, and that it will be only what we make it. If you feel that only one class can win, of course it will not be interesting. But if each of you decides that one class is going to win, and that that class is your own, and work toward that goal, your candidates should be proud to represent your class.

Of course, each class wants to raise as much money as possible in the contest. But this should be only a result, not the main factor; what counts most is you want your queen crowned.

Here is your chance to prove

C. H. S. Seniors Will Present "Here Comes Charlie"

The time is growing steadily nearer when your big moment, in the person of Charlie, will flash onto the stage and into your hearts.

You never could see a more lively, cheerful, and "bodaciously" wonderful personage if you searched to the ends of the earth. That should be enough said, but in case there's more to follow.

Charlie is associated with some other people that will endear themselves to you and some who will give an opposite effect. These people are Larry, Uncle Aleck, Vivian, Ted, Mortimer, Mrs. Farnham, Mrs. Smythe-Kersey, Nora, and Tim.

Take, for instance, Larry. He is a big-hearted chap who is a little over-run with women; but just watch him go!

Then there's Uncle Aleck, the hillbilly butler who is not exactly dumb in the strictest sense of the word, and who will fairly give you fits.

Vivian will add spice and feeling to the plot, and will, more or less, arouse your ire.

Ted is the typical cynic, with no end of sarcasm and humor.

Not much can be said for Mortimer. He is too bored and sleepy.

You probably know that "you can change a fool." But that isn't the half of it. You can also change Mrs. Farnham and she can be sweet when she wants to.

Mrs. Smythe-Kersey adds a bit of life to the situation in the form of a private past life.

As for Tim and Nora, they, too, have a little plot of their own to work out. And don't think it's immaterial, either.

This is only a vague idea of what you will see only one week from tomorrow night when you sit and watch "Here Comes Charlie," the Senior play, from your seat in the High School Auditorium. If you want a life-size enlargement of the above paragraphs in "rip-snorter" action, don't miss "Here Comes Charlie."

Admission price will be 25 cents to everyone.

Ten In A Coupe And We're Off!

All aboard! Everybody better get settled because we're fixing to take off!

"Poor Boys!" several people have said, sympathetically. "Ten of them in a coupe car."

Not everyone would stack up like sardines just to go to a contest, but the F. F. A. boys and Mr. Milton Morris, their teacher, did last Thursday, when they went to Lubbock to a shop contest.

As this is the first year vocational agriculture has been taught in our school, it looks as if some good-hearted man could have loaned them a car so they wouldn't have been so packed, and maybe they might have won more after they got down there. They are so interested that they would have gone if they had had to walk.

We, the other students of C. H. S., wish to say that we are indeed proud that we have a club in our school with so much pep and interest.

"MASTERPIECE WILL BE DISPLAYED"

Reproductions of works of artists of many generations will be on display at the Canyon Elementary School on May 3 and 7.

This collection consists of 150 masterpieces, representing the French, Italian, Flemish, English, Dutch, Spanish, German, and American Schools of Art. Most of these are the masterpieces studied by the schools. Famous portraits, landscapes, mariens, and pastoral scenes in the colors of the original canvases will be on display.

Mrs. Carl Scott has charge of arrangements for the exhibit, which is put on by the Colonial Art Company of Oklahoma City. Tickets will be sold for ten cents each.

HOW ABOUT CLEANING UP OUR LOCKERS?

Do you like to be neat and clean? If you do, your locker should be kept clean, also.

No one likes to pass through the locker rooms and find the locker doors standing wide open, the lockers crammed full, books falling out, and waste paper and all kinds of junk in them. It is not very pleasing to the eye.

Another reason you should clean out your locker is that you might find that long-lost book that you have not had for a long time, or you may find someone else's book or things you had lost.

Every one take time out and give your locker a good cleaning; and see if you won't enjoy opening your locker more.

your loyalty to your class and to Canyon High School.

Track Team Enters District Meet Saturday

The Canyon Eagles' track season will open Saturday in the district meet to be held at Buffalo Field. The team has been working for the past six weeks and every member is in good condition. Although not having enough entries to make it possible to win the meet, the Eagles expect to give a good account of themselves.

Probable entries for the Eagles include Ray Ford Rusk, entered in the 220-yard dash, the shot-put, high jump, broad jump, and a member of the relay team; Jack Middleton, entered in the 440-yard dash and a member of the relay team; C. L. Drummond, entered in the 880-yard run and a member of the relay team; and Melvin Calliham, running the 880 and probably the other man on the relay team.

Sherman Higdon will represent the Eagles in the mile run. R. E. Prichard, J. D. Breitling, and Odell Miller round out the Eagle squad. These boys have not yet indicated what they intend to enter.

What Is So Rare As A Day In Spring

Spring, the beautiful season of the year. Spring, with its green grass and leafy trees. Spring, with its clear-smelling air and dust storms.

Youth and spring are associated. The youth walks out of his house in his beautiful spring suit and through the green trees and across the green grass, which are green all the winter (evergreen). He skips across the alley and across the neighbors' lawn and down the street, after his hat. He walks along with his hands in the air, holding his hat on his head. He arrives to the place where the flowers bloom in the greatest extent in the summer and bends down to dust the dirt off his new suit. My, what a nice day for the spring! So he walks into the drug store after a hot chocolate, and upon stepping out he again skips merrily down the street after his hat. He is a gentleman and always called the gentle spring breeze of West Texas a wind until it blew his hat into the creek.

What a day! What a day! He yawns lazily and rushes quickly into the cafe for a drink of water to wash the dust out of his mouth. He decides it is just the afternoon for a walk in the beautiful country; he's still after that hat of his. He is walking along, happy, in the country when he spies a young bird that has fallen out of its nest, and he bends over to empty the dirt out of his shoes. Then he climbs a tree, still after that hat. Ah, after all this time he finds it and is he glad when the skunk goes away and leaves him alone!

After the day is gone, he wanders home to go to bed and is very glad to slowly raise the covers of the bed to shake the dust off; but he refuses to wash his face, for he knows that in the morning it will be just as dusty.

Party Given For Second Graders
Mrs. J. J. Wright and Mrs. Lena Tueck gave a surprise birthday party to their children, Charles Wright and Louise Tueck, in the second-grade room April 6.

Charles and Louise went to Miss Fronabarger's office while the refreshments were being prepared. When they came back into the room, the children sang "Happy Birthday to You." Both children were eight years old. Charles' birthday was April 6, and Louise's was April 3.

A pink and white color scheme was carried out in the refreshments. Pink cake with pink candles and white ice cream were served to Katy Tueck, sister of Louise, Miss Elva Fronabarger, Miss Gwendolyn Black, Martha Jean Avent, Zelma Bluet, Gladys Davis, Margaret Davenport, Charline Davenport, Delfeta Gonles, Lupis Gonles, Jessie Hardin, Lorraine Hall, Geannene Howard, Ruth Prichard, Pauline Ruthardt, Billy Earl Abbott, Gene Davis, Hammon Hurst, Raymond Martingne, John Martingne, Harry Neff, Lloyd Russell, Pat Sanders, Junior McBroom, and Wilbert Long.

Mary Horn, Lulu Marie Ellison, Retha Lindsay, and Katie Jean Black visited in Amarillo Sunday.

Dorothy Dix, columnist: "Kissing isn't what it used to be."

Meet The Seniors

For the next six weeks, we are introducing to you the graduates of this spring, and their sponsor; and we shall try to tell you something about their habits, and their characteristics.

Mr. Emil Hutto

"Coach" is the sponsor of the seniors and is head football coach in Canyon High School. His hobby is football, and he says he had rather teach history than any subject in school. His "pet hates" are meat loaf, carrots, and basketball.

Beulah Brasuel

"Cotton" Brasuel says her hobby is reading and that her favorite subject is civics. Beulah has been in school here for eight years, coming from New Mexico. She seems to be a Gene Raymond fan. "Cotton" says she is very fond of swimming, but as yet she is unable to swim.

Melvin Calliham

Melvin, who is president of the student body of Canyon High School, is tall, with dark brown eyes, black hair, and very dark coloring. His hobby is coyote-hunting, and bookkeeping rates top with him so far as subjects are concerned.

Dell Bagley

Dell lives on a farm and goes in for outdoor sports, such as horseback riding and swimming. Pickles are by all means her favorite as food, and make-up-work her pet hate. Oh, yes, her nickname is "Dutchman."

Lavert Avent

Lavert insists that his favorite star is Mae West, and that he can go in for chicken any day in the year. He hates to study, but if he must he'll take agriculture.

Mary Jo Avent

Mary Jo keeps a scrapbook and says she hates being talked about worse than anything else. Her favorite sport is basketball, and green vegetables are her favorite food. Her nickname is Jo.

Wanda Brock

Wanda says reading is also her hobby and that civics is her favorite subject. Her pet hate is gossip. She is 16 years old.

"A POOR MARRIED MAN" GOES TO HAPPY FRIDAY

"A Poor Married Man" is going to Happy! He is to arrive tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the Happy High School auditorium.

Several weeks ago this play was presented here by the Junior class in order to raise money to sponsor the annual Junior-Senior banquet. The Juniors' share of the proceeds from the happy performance will go for the same purpose.

The Juniors urge anyone, who has not seen the play to be at Happy tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

Library Receives New Books

Several new books have been received in the Canyon Public School libraries recently. The American Association of University Women and Dorothy Warwick have each donated to the library.

The A. A. U. W. donated two new books, "Drums Along the Mohawk," a novel by Walter O. Edwards, and "Golden Tales of the Far West," a short-story book by May Lamberton Becker to the high school library. They also gave five new books to the grade-school library.

"Charles Goodnight," by J. Evetts Haley and "The Texas Rangers," by W. P. Welbore, are two other new books in the library.

Dorothy Warwick is bringing two magazines, the "News Week," and "Life," to the library each week.

The school wishes to express its thanks and appreciation to the A. A. U. W. and to Dorothy.

Tenth-Graders Have Hopes For Opera

"When the Frost is on the pumpkin and the fodder's in the shock."

Such were the words of the tenth-grade English class as they were attempting to sing the poem written by James Whitcomb Riley.

Some of the voices were bass; others sounded as if there were frogs in their throats; but from the bottom of their hearts they enjoyed it. They might get to be opera singers one of these days.

Then after this song was over, they were to read another poem entitled "Autumn Song." One bright boy, not very interested in the work, said, "Oh, are we going to sing another one?"

These are just a few of the interesting things that happen in our class. If you want fun with your learning, you should be in the tenth-grade English class.

Mary Ann Baird of Hereford visited in the home of her cousins, Natalie and Billie B. Flesher, during this week end.

Faculty Will Present "Mama's Baby Boy" Tuesday, May 4

Hobbies Discussed By Junior Home Ec. Club

"Hobbies" were discussed last Tuesday in the regular meeting of the Junior Homemakers' Club.

The first discussion was given by Charlotte Beth Henderson, program chairman, on "Why Have a Hobby?" She brought out the fact that "a hobby must grow naturally out of one's interests, needs, and abilities."

"Hobbies may be divided into the following classes: recreation, which contributes to the well-being of others; making things; acquiring things; appreciation; and family hobbies," said Pauline Moore, discussing "Finding a Hobby."

Ruth Gill talked on "What Is a Hobby?" She said, "The happy man is he who has most sources of pleasure in himself. The art of living is to discover the things that make life worthwhile and significant."

Lemonade was served as refreshments.

The committee for next meeting is Marielle Oldham, chairman, and Viola Dooley, Raynelle Rigsby, and Lillian Chambers.

Can This Disease Be Contagious

"Let's all sing like the birdies sing, Tweet, tweet, tweet, tweet, tweet!"

What? Are we nuts? No, it's just spring fever. The malady is manifesting itself in various ways around the school. I hear that the bookkeeping class, though, seems to be immune. It seems that they have really been studying. It surely does seem queer, walking by their door every morning and seeing them poring over their books.

It seems that "la editor" has been doing some pretty good work lately. It may be a false alarm, but we hear that she made an "A-" on her civics test. Boy, oh boy.

And have you girls noticed Carolyn Mayfield's hair? She actually has it combed these days, with two long "cork-screws" running down the side of her head. Mary Collins is wearing her hair differently, too, but she says she doesn't like it and is going to change it back. Bye the bye, Dell Bagley has gone "Shirley Temple" on us with her pretty curls. Atta going, Dell, ole kid! Personally I think Sue Terry doesn't know how she wants to wear her hair. One day she is the sophisticated girl with rolls of hair draping her pretty head, and the next she's wearing that so-called "perfect school-girl hairdress." (If you know what we mean.)

There surely have been some gay colors running around here lately—with girls and boys inside them, of course. For instance: Renna Beth Bellah with her red-and-orange dotted blouse, red sports sweater, and—of all things! green skirt. It sounds horrible, but it really looks cute. And the other day Billy Sternberg was parading in a plaid shirt, green pants, and a red tie.

White shoes of all sorts—sandals, oxfords, pumps—seem to be the style in school footwear right now. Bright-colored sandals are appearing, too.

Of course, there are a lot more evidences of spring, but that's all we have room for right now. If you find any more, just tell little Annabelle.

LEWIS UPCHURCH WINS HONORS AT A. & M.
Lewis Upchurch, who graduated from the Canyon High School in 1931, has recently been appointed associate professor of agriculture in the Texas Mechanical and Agricultural College at Bryan.

Upchurch attended the West Texas State Teachers College for two years and then transferred to A. & M. In the latter institution, he has almost a straight "A" record. He took his B. S. degree in Agricultural Administration, and his M. S. in Agriculture Economy and Statistics. His father, W. H. Upchurch, is county agent of Randall county.

W. T. GLEE CLUB GIVES ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

Directed by Miss Ada V. Clark, the Girls' Choral Club of W. T. High School presented the program in assembly Wednesday afternoon, April 7.

The girls sang "On a Silver Moonbeam," "The Rose of Tralee," "The Old Refrain," "The Galway Piper," "Singin'," and "Maiden Sweet, Be More Discreet."

Mary Collins spent Saturday night in Amarillo with her sister, Ethel Ruth Collins.

Breitling Wins In Lubbock Contest

Nine members of the Canyon High School F. F. A. Club entered the judging contests that were held at the Texas Technological College in Lubbock last Friday.

Those entered in the Dairy Products Contest were J. D. Breitling, Glenn Campbell, and Melvin Calliham. Those in the Farm-Shop contest were Lavert Avent, Billy Bewley, and Barnett Ball. Those who entered the Plant-Production contest were Billy Davis, Carol Dooley, and Herbert Kuhlmann.

J. D. Breitling garnered the laurels for Canyon High School by winning first in judging butter and second in milk-judging. Milk, cream, and butter were the dairy products that were judged. Fifty-seven boys entered this contest.

The official report for the other contests is not available. A total of about six hundred boys entered the various contests that were held. Eighty-six schools from all over the Panhandle were represented. Mr. Milton Morris, agriculture coach, was well satisfied because, he said: "We received some practical experience which we have heretofore not received, as well as placing well in the judging."

April Is The Month Of Many Wars

Besides containing the day which all fools celebrate, April is a month of wars, having had more wars beginning in it than in any other month.

On April 16, 1917, the United States declared war on Germany and entered the World War. April 25, 1898, our nation declared war on Spain.

Lee surrendered the Southern Army at Appomattox Court House on April 8, 1865, just outside the city of Richmond, Virginia. The first shot of the Civil War was also fired April 12, 1861, at Fort Sumpter.

Thomas Jefferson, third president of the United States, statesman, diplomat, political philosopher, party leader, and architect, was born on April 13, 1743, at Shadwell, Virginia. He was governor of Virginia, Minister to France, Secretary of State, and president of the United States for two terms.

April 19 is the day when all true patriots celebrate. It is known as Patriot's Day.

In April, 1564, one of the greatest writers the world has ever known was born. William Shakespeare's probable birth date is April 23.

The first newspaper was issued in America on April 24, 1704. Ulysses Simpson Grant, commander-in-chief of the Federal armies during the Civil War, was born on April 27, 1822, at Point Pleasant, Ohio. Besides being one of the best American generals, he served as president of the United States for two terms.

On April 30, 1803, the United States bought the Louisiana Territory from France for $15,000,000.

The word "April" means "to open." This month was so named because it is the month when buds, blossoms, and flowers open.

La Tertulia Gives Rotary Program

La Tertulia presented a Pan-American program at Rotary Tuesday. The program consisted of the following numbers: "Home on the Range," sung by the club members; a talk on "Pan-Americanism," by James Pope; "Cielito Lindo," a vocal duet by Helen Johnson and Annie Mae Spencer; "Cultural and Economic Ties," discussed by Sarah Thompson; and "America," sung by the club.

Pan-American Day is celebrated on April 14, but the program was presented at a Rotary Club luncheon.

The Pan-American flags, belonging to the club, were used as decoration. They were on display in Miss Jewell Foster's room on Tuesday morning.

La Tertulia has celebrated Pan-American Day ever since it was originated.

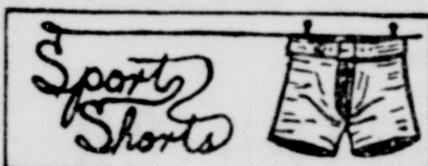

All of the songs sung by the club members were sung in Spanish. Miss Gwendolyn Black was the piano accompanist.

GUESS WHO?

A suicide red-head,
With big brown eyes;
A basketball player;
The Freshman "prize."
Answer to last week's "Guess Who?"—Raynelle Rigsby.

Miss Jewell Foster visited her aunt in Hale Center during the week-end.

Sarah Thompson spent Saturday night and Sunday with her grandmother in Tulsa.

Well, folks, it won't be long now until we see how much steam our track team has stored up. The district track-meet will be held at Buffalo Stadium next Saturday. There will be plenty of tough competition between trackmen in this district. The Eagles will be in shape to clip off the old track at a high rate of speed.

There have been rumors of spring training for girls' basketball. It's a very good idea, Coach Brown.

It doesn't seem that the work-outs that Coach Hutto has been getting have helped his reducing act much. Maybe the guy has an all-steel body. He can really take it, anyway.

Mumbledy-peg has become a recent sport in Canyon High School. It has been reported that Sherman Higdon is the tops in that sport. Don't make a slip and gig yourself, Sherman.

The spring footballers sure are getting sorry. Why, they even had to have last year's quarterback, C. L. Drummond, give them a little lesson in how to call signals. "Monkey" Ford still talks in the good old southern drawl, which just went down for a quarterback.

Coach Hutto claims he is twice as good a golfer as Mr. Brown. Somehow I doubt that statement. I don't know why, but I do.

Girls' Debate Team Defeats Vega

The Canyon girls' debate team, Shirley Ann Oliver and Lillian Chambers, won a debate over Vega and tied with Hereford Wednesday afternoon, April 7.

Mr. Aubrey Fox, principal of the Vega High School, who judged the debate, stated, "It was a really close debate, but I believe that the Canyon team was a few points ahead."

This is the third time that the Canyon girls have defeated Vega and the second time they have tied Hereford.

These debates were just for practice for the District Tournament, which will be next week-end.

Douglas Brasuel spent the week end in the Martin home.

One-Act Play Wins District Contest Saturday

Priona High School's one-act play, "The Blue Teapot," directed by Miss Christine Warren, was awarded first place in the finals of the District One Interscholastic League One-Act Play contest, held in the demonstration school auditorium Saturday night. "Neighbors," presented by a high school cast from Amarillo under the direction of Mrs. Lela Crossett, in the finals Saturday night with the Priona play, took second place.

Morton Walker, from the cast of "Neighbors," and Ruth Reed of "The Blue Teapot" cast, were selected as the outstanding boy and girl actor and actress, respectively. Star selections were made from the casts of the two plays presented in the finals.

Five District One high schools entered one-act plays in the annual contest. Competing with Amarillo and Priona in the elimination rounds Friday were Dimmitt High School, presenting "Sparkling"; Dumas High School with "The Elopement"; and Tulia High School with "Neighbors," the same play produced by the Amarillo cast.

Texas Tech Net Squad Smashes W. T. Opponents

A much improved squad of Texas Tech netters upset the W. T. racquet welders 7 to 1 in a dual meet on the clay courts at Lubbock Saturday.

Starting slowly, but gaining momentum as the match progressed Glyndon Riley and George Smalley pulled out the lone victory for the Buffaloes in the ranking doubles slot.

Insufficient time prohibited the final doubles match from being played, and the second dual contest was finished in the dusk.

In the ranking singles slot, Harry Jordan, Tech, staged a final set rally to win over Norton Curry 6-4, 3-6, 6-2. Jack Hays fell before the consistent strokes of Wilson Chapman 6-4, 5-7, 6-1, and Glyndon Riley staged an endurance battle before he succumbed to Aubrey McCarty, Tech, 7-5, 3-6, 6-1. ## Commissioners Have Hearings on Soil Erosion Law

The Commissioners Court has been sitting at various times under the provision of the new law to review complaints which are made against land owners and renters who have allowed their land to blow.

Under the provisions of the soil erosion bill which was passed by the last session of the legislature, complaints may be made to the precinct committees by any land owner who feels that his property is being damaged or is liable to be damaged through neglect of other land owners or renters to take proper steps to stop the erosion.

When the complaint is registered with the commissioners court, a date is set for the hearing and the land owners and renters who are permitting the erosion to continue are notified to appear.

After hearing the complaint, the commissioners may order listing or other means of protection to be done and the expense charged against the land, provided the owner fails or refuses to do his part.

The commissioners have two cases set for hearing next Saturday.

Practically every county of Northwest Texas has adopted the provisions of the new erosion law in order to check the destruction of land through erosion.

Valuable Dog of Dr. H. A. Brown Killed by Poison

The registered collie dog belonging to Dr. H. A. Brown was killed yesterday when fed poison by some unknown person. The collie was the highest priced dog in Canyon, and was considered one of the finest of his breed in the Panhandle. He was probably the only dog in Randall county on which a dog license has been annually paid and has been rendered for taxes.

Since the dog never bothered any one, or left home excepting to go to the home of Mrs. Brown's mother, Mrs. Cyrus Eakman, the family is unable to imagine who would give poison to the family pet.

WIN GAS NAME CONTEST

B. L. Rogers, Farnsworth

John E. Speer, Amarillo

The Shamrock Oil & Gas Corporation, Amarillo, announces that the name selected as first choice for its new gasoline, from among the more than five thousand names submitted in the recent contest, is "Polymerine," pronounced "Pollymer-in-e." Two contestants sent in the winning name. These were B. L. Rogers, Farnsworth, Texas, and John E. Speer, Amarillo. Each was awarded the first prize sum of $100.

"Polymerine suggests aptly the very high Polymer content of our new gasoline to be manufactured in our ultra-modern refinery now being completed at Sunray," states

Roland B. Day, general manager of the refining company. "There were so many names submitted in the contest and so many of them were excellent that we had a very difficult task to choose the winning name."

A coupon book entitling the holder to $5.00 worth of Shamrock Polymerine gasoline was awarded to each of 25 contestants who did not receive one of the three cash prizes. Included in the coupon book awards was Mrs. J. S. McCormick of Canyon.

Additional winners in the contest are listed in an advertisement appearing in this issue.

Pan-American Program Is Presented at Rotary Luncheon

Irby Carruth, chairman of the International Service committee, was in charge of the program at the Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday. Miss Jewell Foster, Spanish teacher of the high school, directed a program on Pan-American relationship.

Following a song by the Spanish club, Jimmie Pope made a talk on Pan-American relations. A building in Washington is dedicated to friendship between the United States and Pan-American nations. The fair at Dallas this year will be dedicated to this theme.

On April 14, 1890, the first conference was held among the nations to encourage understanding and to promote peace. The Monroe Doctrine has protected these smaller nations and encouraged a peaceful attitude. 20 nations sent representatives to the conference held in December under the direction of President Roosevelt and Secretary Hull.

Miss Helen Johnson and Annie Mae Spencer sang a duet in Spanish.

Miss Sarah Thompson told of the facilities which were promoting good will among the American nations. The Pan-American airway, the highway from Canada south, and the Panama Canal are all playing an important part. The United States has five billions of dollars invested in the industries of these nations. The relation between the United States and these nations is more cordial today than ever before. Exchange of teachers and students, and the study of Spanish in the high schools and colleges of this nation are promoting a better feeling.

George Taylor was introduced as a new member of the club.

Visitors present were: W. S. Norman, F. A. Zimpher, Phil Purdum, Irving Tolzien, L. F. Hoare, M. O. Carder, all of Amarillo; Stoney Wall of Lubbock; Gordon MacInnis of White Deer.
